

INDIANA ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, INC.

Paul Wyman, 2009 President

Paul Wyman is Owner & President of The Wyman Group, Inc., with offices located in Howard and Tipton County.

Paul has served the real estate profession on a local, state and national level. He is past President of the REALTORS® Association of Central Indiana (RACI), a group that recently named him REALTOR® of the Year. He continues to be involved in a number of RACI committees, from economic development and political affairs to finance and publications. Paul is a current Director for the National Association of REALTORS®.

Paul serves his community in many ways, but most notable is his status as a veteran of Operation Desert Shield from the first Persian Gulf Conflict. Paul was a member of the United States Air Force receiving various medals and was honored as Central Indiana's Airman of the Year. He is involved with many non profits in his community such as Habitat for Humanity, United Way, Chamber of Commerce, Kokomo Downtown Association, and the Kokomo Symphony. In addition, Paul is involved with area youth development by Chairing the Howard County Youth Leadership Summit.

Paul holds elected office, serving on the Howard County Council, and because of his extensive knowledge of local government in Indiana, was named by Governor Mitch Daniels to serve on the Distressed Unit Appeals Board. This Board was created in 2007 to review appeals from local governments seeking temporarily relief for reduced property tax collections because of the phase-in of property tax caps.

Paul holds an Associate's degree in Business Management from Indiana University.

Paul is married to Shelly. Together, they have two children, and attend Saint Joan of Arc Catholic Church in Kokomo.
