Re: Laurie LaDow – Region 1 Director

To the Nominating Committee:

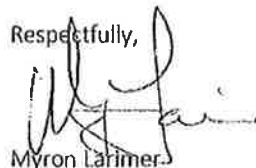

I am writing to recommend that you give strong consideration to Laurie LaDow for inclusion in the Indiana Association of REALTORS® Directors ballot for 2017. Laurie is a member of the Greater South Bend-Mishawaka Association of REALTORS® and has been actively involved in various leadership roles for a number of years. She has served on numerous committees, as well as our Board of Directors. She is a past-president and past-REALTOR® of the Year with our Association.

Laurie shows great enthusiasm in her role as a leader within our organization. She actively engages others by encouraging their participation in our programs and events. She is informed on the issues confronting our organization. She is committed to making our association an active part of our community. She sets a tone of professionalism in her approach to her responsibilities. She is working hard to make our local association relevant to the life of our community, and has led numerous efforts to engage our Association within the local community. She is a strong advocate for RPAC, investing at the Golden R level and is a President's Circle member. As State Professional Standards Chair, she is committed to the ideals of our professionalism and ethics among our membership.

Laurie is a dynamic leader. She leads with passion and conviction. She does her homework, understands the issues and works hard at building relationships based upon respect and trust. She is committed to making an impact on the organization and helping the organization to make an impact on the industry and the community.

I endorse Laurie's desire to be placed on this year's Director ballot. She has the full support of our local Board of Directors. She will continue to provide the type of thoughtful leadership needed by the Indiana Association of REALTORS®.

Respectfully,

Myron Larimer
Chief Executive Officer
