Other Activities:

Over the past few years, my community activities outside of real estate have been predominately focused on the Andy Caress Melanoma Foundation (ACMF). Five years ago, after my wife’s younger brother, Andy, passed away from melanoma.

ACMF was founded by our family to create awareness, raise money for research and foster community awareness. It has been such an honor and a privilege to watch a community foundation grow from nothing into a bonafide not for profit organization that makes a meaningful impact. Last year ACMF distributed thousands of gallons of sunscreen at public events and made a $60,000 donation to MD Anderson.

Further, I volunteer to cook meals on a regular basis for Daysprings, an emergency homeless shelter in Indianapolis. Outside of ACMF and Daysprings, over the past couple years I have been involved in Tatum's Bags of Fun, Butler University, The Ball State Entrepreneurship Program, Keep Indianapolis Beautiful, Indianapolis Humane Society and the American Red Cross.

Is your Indiana real estate or appraisal license currently subject to state disciplinary action? *

Yes

Candidate Remarks: Having served in leadership at the local, state and national level. I understand the importance of looking forward with a balanced, yet 360-degree view. Our industry on the verge of great change and great potential. Our leaders of the future need to be able to see and embrace both in order to best serve our members.
