Candidate Remarks: My name is Daniel Weaver and have been a passionate, residential Realtor full time for the last 7 years and have had my license and was a part-time agent prior to that since 2002. I enjoy helping folks with one of their biggest financial decisions that they will make in their life and guiding them through the transaction. I am a Graduate of the IRLA in 2013. I look forward to representing my fellow Realtors on a new level and working towards their best interests. Please see past client reviews on DreamWeaverRealtor.com. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Re: Daniel Weaver – Large Board President

To the Nominating Committee:

I am writing in support of the nomination of Daniel Weaver to serve on the Indiana Association of REALTORS® Board of Directors as Large Board President. Daniel will be president of the Greater South Bend-Mishawaka Association of REALTORS® during the 2018 calendar year.

Daniel has served our local Association well. He has an understanding of the issues impacting our industry. He works “hands-on” every day as part of the management team at his office, Coldwell Banker - Roth, Wehrly, Graber. He is a graduate of the Indiana REALTORS® Leadership Academy. He is thoughtful, well spoken, energetic and approaches all things with humor and grace.

I believe Daniel would serve IAR well in the role of Large Board President representative. His integrity, good judgment, attention to detail and ability to work effectively with others will serve the Board of Directors and the state Association well. I strongly encourage you to include Daniel on this year’s ballot.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have regarding Daniel’s nomination. Thank you for the opportunity to share my thoughts.

Respectfully,

Myron Larimer
Chief Executive Officer
