Candidate Remarks:

I am so grateful for the opportunities I have been given in my life and career. As an active residential practitioner, who is not a managing broker, I believe that I bring a voice to the table that isn't always heard at the higher levels. Association Leadership is often the Managers and Owners and while their voices are very vital to our profession, so are the voices of the practitioners such as myself, the ones helping buyers and sellers every day, all day. I love being a part of my local, state and national associations and being able to give my time, energy and resources to help my fellow Realtors and homeowners succeed. Working with forward thinking leadership and making difficult decisions about the future of our associations is never easy and never taken lightly. I am so humbled that my fellow Realtors have voted for me in the past to represent them and I hope that I can continue to get their support in the future so that I can help them do their job helping homeowners every single day. I also promise to attend all meetings as scheduled and make myself available to do the Association business as I have in the past.
