Candidate Remarks:

It has been a privilege and an honor to serve on committees and as a director, of the Southwest Indiana Association of Realtors for over a decade. Helping others is a passion that has been instilled in me from a very young age, and is something that I strive to do at all times. Real Estate is an industry that allows me to live that passion every day, and it offers me the opportunity to help others do that as well when serving in a leadership capacity. My hope is to continue growing and helping others through continued involvement in the Indiana Association of Realtors.

Dear Kathy and Committee Members:

The Southwest Indiana Association of REALTORS® Board of Directors is pleased to endorse Aaron Luttrull as a candidate for the office of Regional Representative for Region 5 to the Indiana Association of REALTORS® Board of Directors.

Aaron has taken an active role in REALTOR® Association Leadership on a local level. He is currently on our board of directors where he is the Treasurer. He is a past YPN Chair and has served on various committees. He is currently the Chair of our REALTOR® - Inspector Committee. Aaron led that group in fundraising efforts to participate in the Make-A-Wish Cottages For Kids event. Giving back to our community is vital to him in appreciation for all that he is blessed with.

Aaron is now in a position to participate in an even greater capacity and looks forward to the opportunity to serve on the state level. His expertise and commitment to the industry affords him the ability to be a great asset to the Indiana Association of REALTORS®. He would count it a privilege to be elected to the office.

Aaron Luttrull will bring a sound, forward-thinking attitude to ensure that our REALTOR® Association continues to grow in a positive direction. Again, we highly recommend him for consideration as a candidate for the IAR Board of Directors.

Sincerely,
